NEW TEN COMMANDMENTS.

(Adopted by Presbyterian Board of Temperance and Moral Welfare)

1. I am the Lord thy God who made every living creature after his kind and gave man dominion over my works, wherefore thou shalt be guardian over beast, bird and cattle, and to them thou shalt be IN MY PLACE.

2. Thou shalt not delight thyself in graven images, but rather in tender mercies to those who depend on thy guardianship. Thou shalt not lay blame or punishment unwarranted upon them who know not wrong, who cannot speak for themselves and who have no means of asserting their rights, wherefore thou art to them the addressee of righteousness in their midst, for I, the Lord, thy God, am a jealous God, remembering thy unfaithfulness and thy cruelties to all my creatures and visiting the errors of thy way upon thy children down through the generations, in that thou hast set a bad example unto them and hast by word and deed led them to disrespect justice and mercy in dealing with my defenceless creatures.

3. Thou shalt not curse thine cattle nor inflict vengeance upon any of God's creatures, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless who disregards His creation.

4. Remember the Sabbath rights of my creatures and practice them sacredly. Every beast of burden and every animal in thy service shall have its days and fitting seasons of rest, whereby the drudgery of its service may be comfortably mingled with the joy of living. With reason and consideration thou shalt assign their tasks and with equal care thou shalt provide food, rest, succor, mercy and those things which make for the natural joy of living.

5. Honor and respect thy guardianship over the animals which have been thy faithful servants and desert them not in an evil day; for by so doing thou mayest prolong thy days and increase thy joys in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

6. Thou shalt not kill, for the joy of killing; for sport in hunting; for contest in skill; or for selfish gain. For the righteous man regardeth the life of his beast.

7. Thou shalt not commit thyself to the lusts of bloody contests nor seek to look upon the cock fight, the live pigeon shoot, the bull fight and all such atrocious acts.

8. Thou shalt not steal, destroy, or take unto thyself selfishly or wantonly that which belongs to the comfort and needs of thy animals.

9. Thou shalt not bear false witness for paltry gain to thyself whereby God's creatures suffer hunger, anguish or torture. Let the testimony of thy guardianship be above thy lust for gain.

10. Thou shalt not covet the bird's plumage, nor the animal's fur; thou shalt not covet the robin's nest nor her young by her side; nor the pigeon the freedom of the air, nor the deer the joy of his lair.
